

Why take a Humanities Qualification in Key Stage 4?

A Humanities based qualification can open many doors for you to walk through. They can form an important part of your career development. As well as the obvious career choices that can be followed, a Humanities qualification can take you to some very unexpected places such as:

Lawyer
Business
Accountant
Management consultant
Transport / logistics manager
Financial risk assessor
Museum Work
Libraries and the Arts
Security services
Secondary School Teacher

Banker
Insurance
Retail Manager
Commercial sales
Economic adviser and analyst
Buyer
Archaeologist
Location analysts
Intelligence
Civil Service

STROOD ACADEMY

Key Stage 4 Courses

A Humanities qualification will equip you with the skills that are much sought after in the jobs market.

You will learn to communicate effectively and concisely. You will learn how to analyse information and apply it to solve problems.

You will develop critical and creative thinking skills as well as gain a good understanding of events that have shaped our world today.

History

BTEC
Public
Services

Religious Studies

Geography